SEI Correspondents Meeting Stockholm 2016

SEI Facts and Figures

Structural Engineering International (SEI) started supporting Open Access—both Gold and Green, options. Upon request, corresponding authors can now avail the option of having their SEI published paper accessible online to public for free. In 2016, SEI also added a new 'Author Template', developed by SPI Global which can be downloaded from IABSE's website for all SEI submissions. SEI in 2017 features 'Recent Structures and Research in Canada' in February, and will feature 'Timber' in May, 'Forensics' in August 'Recent Research and Structures' in the November issue.
